

Katherine St. Onge

Katherine St. Onge is a Senior Officer on the Investor Relations team. She is responsible for managing relationship with individual investors, institutions and financial advisors to increase their understanding of Calvert Foundation's impact investing product and services. Prior to Calvert Foundation, Katherine worked at the Aspen Institute where she focused on building entrepreneurial and early-stage investment ecosystems in the Middle East and North Africa. She also worked for Louisiana Economic Development, crafting policies and strategies to enhance the state's economic competitiveness, and Goldman Sachs, managing both equity and fixed-income investment products. She received her Bachelor's Degree in economics and mathematics from Bucknell University and her M.B.A. from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania.

